Description

The site comprises of 7,804 sqft apex-shaped site with the existing building being situated to the front of the apex and a car park to the rear. The premises were a well-known local destination known as The Starling until 2008, after which the premises changed into a karaoke bar/restaurant that ceased trading in April 2025. Internally, the building comprises a fully fitted bar/restaurant with a kitchen and storeroom. The first floor is comprised of a 3-bedroom apartment.

Location

The site is situated at the junction of Rickmansworth Road A404 and Cuckoo Hill B466, a main road interlinking Pinner to Northwood and Ruislip to Pinner. The property is opposite a secondary parade of shops to the north and is neighbored by residential to the east and south of the site.

Pinner Underground Station is 1.2 miles from the property, and Northwood Hills Underground Station is 0.9 miles away, providing links into central London in 38 minutes. By road, the A40 Western Avenue is 4.4 miles from the site, providing easy access to the M25 / M40.

Opportunity

The site presents various development / repurposing angles to suit a purchaser's needs. Subject to planning the site may be suited for intensified use as a restaurant/bar with an increased footprint to the rear of the site. The site may also suit residential use with several similar sites being developed in the vicinity in recent years. Our client's preference is for an unconditional sale and purchasers should take their independent advice in respect of the potential of the site.

Price

Guide Price of £1,650,000.00 is sought for the freehold interest in the site.
